

American Water's Military Services Group President Honored with Park Renaming

August 23, 2018

VOORHEES, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 23, 2018-- American Water (NYSE: AWK), the nation's largest publicly traded water and wastewater utility company, announced today that Brig. Gen. C. David Turner (U.S. Army, Ret.), president of American Water's Military Services Group, will be honored at a park renaming ceremony on Aug. 25, 2018, in his hometown of Rock Hill, Mo.

The ceremony will take place at the newly renamed Turner Park (formerly Greenwood Park), at 10 a.m. and is sponsored by Rock Hill Mayor Edward Mahan with the support of the St. Louis Gateway Professionals chapter of the National Society of Black Engineers.

"All of us at American Water are proud to work with David on providing water and wastewater treatment solutions for our nation's military communities, and excited for the recognition he's receiving from his hometown for a lifetime of service to our country," said Susan Story, president and CEO of American Water. "His career has come full circle – right back to a community within the American Water footprint."

Turner's family home is located across the street from the park, in a neighborhood served by Missouri American Water. He will be joined at the ceremony by representatives from across the company, including Missouri American Water, Illinois American Water, American Water Resources, and the Military Services Group.
